

“WHY STUDY DIVINE SOVEREIGNTY & HUMAN RESPONSIBILITY?” Pt.2

A. THE NEED FOR STUDYING THIS SUBJECT

A biblical study on divine sovereignty and human responsibility is needed . . .

- 1) . . . to correctly understand a major doctrinal controversy throughout _____.
(Matt. 15:3, 6; 16:6; Col. 2:8)
- 2) . . . to be discerning about the contemporary _____ of _____.
- 3) . . . to accurately and consistently _____ and _____ many difficult passages. (2 Peter 3:16)
- 4) . . . to confirm or deny the repeated dogmatic _____, particularly of Calvinists, that their view is synonymous with the _____.

- 5) . . . because a false, unbiblical understanding of these doctrines will have adverse _____ _____ when it comes to . . .
 - a) . . . _____ . (Rom. 10:1; 1 Tim. 2:1-7)
 - b) . . . _____ . (John 3:16; 1 John 2:2)
 - c) . . . _____ . (1 John 5:13)

d) . . . _____ . (2 Cor. 4:3-4)

6) . . . to properly understand the _____ of _____, particularly His . . .

a) . . . _____ . (John 3:16; Titus 3:4)

b) . . . _____ . (Deut. 32:4)

c) . . . _____ . (Deut. 32:4)

d) . . . _____ . (Dan. 4:34-35)

e) . . . _____ . (Acts 15:18)

7) . . . because a correct understanding and application of this truth will _____ in the
_____ of God in our Christian lives. (Ps. 115:1; Rom. 11:33-36; Eph. 1:4-6)