

JESUS EMPHASIZES THE DUAL NATURE OF THE MESSIAH

(Luke 20:41-21:4)

- A. JESUS' AUTHORITY IS CHALLENGED BY THE RELIGIOUS LEADERS (Luke 20:1-8)
- B. THE PARABLE OF THE VINEYARD OWNER AND HIS SON (Luke 20:9-18)
- C. JESUS IS QUESTIONED ON THE SUBJECT OF PAYING TAXES (Luke 20:19-26)
- D. JESUS IS QUESTIONED ON THE SUBJECT OF THE RESURRECTION (Luke 20:27-40)
- E. JESUS ASKED THE QUESTION ABOUT DAVID'S SON (Luke 20:41-44)

1. Jesus now had some questions of His own for His critics; He took an _____ approach regarding the most important _____ they would ever answer. (v. 41)

2. Christ quoted Psalm 110:1, the most quoted psalm in the New Testament; it was a passage that the religious leaders unanimously identified as a _____, _____ psalm. (vv. 42-43)

3. Jesus brought up the inherent problem in the prophecy (v. 44)...
 - a. How could the Messiah be both David's _____ and David's _____?

 - b. The logical conclusion was that David understood that the Messiah would be his physical _____, but also more than human, He would be _____ with God the Father. (Rom. 1:2-4)

F. JESUS PUBLICLY CONDEMNS THE SCRIBES (Luke 20:45-47)

1. Christ's warning was designed not only to teach His disciples but also to instruct the crowds regarding the pride, greed, and hypocrisy of the teachers of the Law...
 - a. v. 46- These scribes craved personal _____, respect, and a place of _____.

- b. v. 47a- These scribes were obsessed with wealth and they were willing to _____ even the _____ of widows in order to obtain it.
- c. v. 47b- These scribes offered lengthy, _____ prayers in _____, which only demonstrated their true hypocrisy before God.
2. Jesus stated with authority, “These will receive greater condemnation,” which informs us that there are definitely _____ of punishment in _____. (v. 47c)
- * How should this remind us of the principle, greater privilege means greater responsibility? (cf. James 3:1)

G. JESUS HIGHLIGHTS THE SACRIFICIAL GIFT OF THE WIDOW (Luke 21:1-4)

1. Jesus contrasted the _____ piety of the rich lawyers with that of the _____ piety of one poor woman. (vv. 1-2)
2. This is another lesson for Luke's readers on how one's _____ should _____ his/her attitude toward money. (vv. 3-4)
3. Believers who are poor can take great solace in the fact that even though their bank account is not great, God sees whether the _____ and the _____ of their heart are.
- * What can you personally apply from this passage?