

THE RESURRECTION OF JESUS CHRIST

(Luke 24:1-12)

A. JESUS RISES FROM THE DEAD (Luke 24:1-12)

1. As nice as it was for these women to pay their respects by bringing spices to the tomb, regrettably they did _____ expect to see Jesus _____; thankfully His death was not the end of the story. (v. 1)
2. In Mark's Gospel the women actually wondered who would remove the stone for them; the stone was not rolled back to let Jesus _____, but to let the _____. (v. 2, cf., Matt. 28:2-4; Mark 16:3-4)
3. This is the _____ time in the New Testament that our Savior is called by this name, "the _____ Jesus" and it is in regards to His glorious _____. (v. 3)
4. The two "men" were obviously angels; their sudden _____ and dazzling _____ frightened the women who were deep in thought. (v. 4, cf. Matt. 28:5; Mark 16:5)
5. With all that these women had been taught by the Lord, the angel asked a really good question, "Why do you seek the _____ among the _____?" (v. 5, cf. Mark 16:6-8)

6. He then _____ the women how Jesus had previously _____ His own death and resurrection. (vv. 6-7, cf. Matt. 16:21; 17:22-23; 20:17-19; Luke 9:21-22, 43-45; 18:31-34)

7. Luke states that “they _____ His words”, because of the resurrection—suddenly everything came together and made _____. (v. 8)

8. The angels had been witnesses of the resurrection to the women, and now these women would be the _____ of the resurrection, and their audience would be the eleven apostles. (vv. 9-10)

9. Since Jesus had already predicted His death and resurrection, and the apostles had been eye witnesses of Him raising people from the dead, it is so _____ that they were the _____ in the resurrection. (v. 11, cf. Mark 16:9-11)

* How is the disciples’ unbelief a strong argument for the resurrection?

10. Peter ran to the tomb (v. 12) accompanied by John (John 20:6-7); after seeing the empty tomb Peter went away “_____”, and John went away _____. (John 20:8).

* Do you personally believe in the resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ?
