

“SCRIPTURAL PRINCIPLES ON PARENTING”

Principle #1: The relationship of the husband and wife must have _____ the relationship with the children. (Gen. 2:18-25)

 What is a "child-centered" home?*

Principle #2: The key to your relationship with your _____ and _____ is your relationship with _____. (Gen. 3:1-15; 1 Jn. 1:5-10)

 How can you have fellowship with God?*

 How can you have fellowship with others?*

 Why is consistency in your walk with the Lord so important?*

 What affect will fulfilling your God-given marriage roles have upon your children?*

Principle #3: You must accept your God-given _____ as a parent for your children's sake. (Ps. 127:3; Eph. 6:1-4)

 Why is it so essential for your child to learn to obey you?*

Principle #4: Parenting is a long-term _____ which must have the long-range _____ of training your children to _____ in every aspect of their lives. (Prov. 22:6; 1 Cor. 10:31; Eph. 6:4)

 What should not be some of your goals in parenting?*

 How should we interpret and apply Proverbs 22:6?*

 What comforting truth must you always keep in mind as a parent? (Heb. 12:5-11)*